

YOUR RIGHTS, BIKES AND THE POLICE

Bicyclists' Rights and Responsibilities in Portland

Wednesday June 23 2010
5:30-7:00 pm

Law office of Berkshire Ginsberg
1216 SE Belmont St.
(#15 bus)

Free event

Limited space-reservation required

Portland Copwatch-503-236-3065 or trainings@portlandcopwatch.org

In conjunction with Pedalpalooza
250+ events June 10-26

"Your Rights, Bikes and the Police": a seminar conducted by a local attorney and members of Portland Copwatch.

Do I need a helmet? Bike lights? What are my rights when I'm stopped by the police? What do I do when the police ask to search my bag? Join us information session addressing bicycle traffic law in Portland, and basic rights to know for being stopped by, harmed by, or when observing the police.

Portland Copwatch

(a project of Peace and Justice Works)

PO Box 42456

Portland, OR 97242

(503) 236-3065 (office)

(503) 321-5120 (incident report line)

<http://www.portlandcopwatch.org>

trainings@portlandcopwatch.org see the Portland Copwatch website for a "Bike Riders' Bill of Rights and Responsibilities"